$3,450,000,000 RELIEF BILL IS GIVEN APPROVAL

Several Changes Made By Committee Before Passage

Washington, May 21.—(AP)—The Senate appropriations committee added $298,000,000 to the administration's relief bill today and gave final approval to the measure totalling $3,450,000,000.

Major changes made by the committee included:

A provision restricting the use of PWA funds for the construction of public utility plants.

Provision of $212,000,000 for benefit payment to wheat, cotton and corn producers.

A reduction of $100,000,000 in the billion-dollar PWA appropriation.

Insertion of a requirement that WPA wage differentials be eliminated in the event uniform labor standards are imposed through enactment of wage hour legislation.

Reduction from $100,000,000 to $25,000,000 in the authorization for the rural electrification administration.

By Narrow Margin.

Members reported the committee had adopted, by a narrow margin, a sub-committee recommendation that the PWA be prohibited from financing construction of utility plants which would compete with existing private systems when the latter are subject to any form of public regulation.

The amendment was written in to the administration's three-billion-dollar relief bill.

The appropriations committee also approved a proposal by Senator Byrnes (D-SC) that the WPA be required to eliminate wage differentials in the event uniform labor standards are imposed on industry through enactment of wage-hour legislation.

Wages Lower In South.

At present, the WPA pays lower wages in the south than in the north. The wage-hour bill pending in the House would impose flat labor standards on industry throughout the country.

The committee also made public testimony by Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins that the proposed appropriation of $1,425,000,000 for WPA would fall about 300,000 short of reemploying all eligibles on the relief rolls.

Hopkins said in testimony before the committee that about 500,000 persons were certified as eligible for WPA work but could not be given jobs on the basis of present funds.

Even if the new appropriation is to be made available immediately, Hopkins told the committee, WPA would not increase its present rolls of 2,600,000 persons by more than 200,000.

The sub-committee's action increased the bill's total to $3,354,000,000.

Amendments Approved.

Other amendments approved by the sub-committee included:

A restriction of PWA financing of publicly-owned power plants and distribution systems.

An increase of $175,000,000 in the relief appropriation, raising it to $1,425,000,000.

A provision that WPA wages shall be uniform for the same type of work throughout the country if a wage-hour bill is enacted which provides no sectional differences in standards.

Despite the increased sum for WPA and the $200,000,000 for farm benefits the sub-committee increased the bill's total by only about $200,000,000. Other items were reduced.

House-approved provisions giving the president power to approve or veto projects but eliminating his present authority to allocate funds among various emergency agencies were adopted.

The sub-committee whittled to $25,000,000 the $100,000,000 house-approved authorization for the rural electrification administration.

Only Course

Marysville, Calif., May 21.—(AP)—Ivy Anderson and Dean Green shivered today at the recollection of their tramp—stark naked—over 14 miles of snow-covered hills.

Traveling cross country, they decided to swim Slats creek. They disrobed, tied their clothes in a bundle and heaved it towards the opposite shore.

The bundle fell short, and the swift water whirled it away.

They set out for their cars, four miles away. When they reached it they remembered the keys were in their clothes.

There was nothing to do but hike on to Strawberry, 10 miles farther.

RESTRICTION OF
CORN ACREAGE
CALLED VICIOUS

1900 Attended Meeting of Whiteside Corn
Liberty League

At a meeting of the Whiteside Co. Corn Belt Liberty League held in the Coliseum at Sterling last evening, and attended by an estimated 1900 men and women, resolutions addressed to the President of the United States, the Secretary of Agriculture and the Illinois United States Senators and Congressmen, were adopted, in which it was stated that the farmers in attendance "looked with fear and disfavor on certain features of the crop control law and its administration by the United States Department of Agriculture."

The resolutions continued that "these said farmers are firmly convinced that corn allotments, which are now being made, are, in many cases, absolutely ruinous to the farmer; that they are convinced that the present agricultural law is so designed that it can be used to bring about, through threats or inducements, the adoption of compulsory features which strike at the very heart of individual liberty and the farmer's right to operate his farm as he sees fit; that these farmers have never expressed themselves as being favorable to any such drastic or un-American program, or have given anyone authority to represent them in favor of such legislation; and that they are determined to resist to the last, any efforts to force them, under threat of prosecution to give over the control of their lands to other people."

To "Resist Dictation."

The document of protest concluded with a "resolve that the farmers here in meeting assembled pledge to faithfully oppose this program and call upon other farmers, who wish to retain control of their farms and resist dictation, to do likewise."

The meeting was featured by addresses by the Rev. Henry Bloomer of Macomb, a farm owner and leader in the protesting movement; and Fred Winterorth of Bloomington, secretary of the Illinois division of the Farmers' Union. Roy Evans of Sterling, president of the Whiteside County Liberty League, was in charge of the meeting, and in calling it to order called attention of provisions in the Constitution and Bill of Rights, guaranteeing everyone the right to the pursuit of happiness and the right of all to meet in orderly assembly and to petition congress for redress from wrongs. He explained that the Corn Belt Liberty League is a non-political organization, with no room for radicals, and outlined its mechanism, with a chairman in each township who acts in an advisory capacity in cooperation with

Japanese and Chinese Forces Are Locked in Battle at Railway Town

Shanghai, May 21.—(AP)—Chinese and Japanese forces were locked in bitter fighting today at the little Lunghai railway town of Lanfeng, 275 miles from the coast and key to China's ancient capital, Kaifeng.

Both sides agreed that Nihwang station near Lanfeng changed hands in pitched battles twice during the day, as Japanese warplanes rained bombs on towns all along the Lunghai west of captured Suichow.

The Chinese were said to have possession of Nihwang late in the day. A most critical situation at Lanfeng was prevented only by the arrival of heavy Chinese reinforcements, reports from the front said.

The Japanese declared they "almost completely annihilated" the 95th Chinese division in the fighting around Lanfeng. Remnants of the division were said to be retreating westward, "leaving a trail of dead and dying."

A large force of Chinese made a brief stand at Chulan, 18 miles southeast of Suichow, according to the Japanese. This force broke up and scattered into the hills and around Lake Hungze.

The capture of Lanfeng would make Kaifeng untenable, forcing the Chinese to withdraw westward toward Chengchow, junction of the Lunghai and the Peiping-Hankow railways.

Americans still at Kaifeng were believed to be M. W. Harris and Mrs. Addie Cox of Providence, Ala.; Josephine Ward of Moberly, Mo.; three Catholic priests—I. Brandstetter, C. Baker and S. Clougherty—and six American Sisters of St. Mary's of the Woods.

STATE POLITICAL RIVALS REACH NO
REAL AGREEMENT

Legislature Gives Right-Of-Way to Emergency Appropriation

Springfield, Ill., May 21.—(AP)—The Horner-Kelly relief conferences, so far characterized by talk rather than decisions, stole the spotlight today as the legislature gave right-of-way to the administration's $4,500,000 emergency appropriation.

By next Wednesday, soon after midnight, that sum is to be voted from the state treasury to help Chicago meet its latest relief crisis.

While the first special session insisted on slow motion procedure on other controversies, Governor Horner and Mayor Kelly of Chicago sat down across from each other at several tables to start efforts to find temporary and permanent solutions to the old problem of unemployment.

Both men insisted the discussions that ended a few minutes before 2 A. M. brought no general agreement.

The governor stuck to his position that the additional $4,500,000 is all that will be taken from the state treasury, in addition to the regular biennial $72,000,000 relief appropriation.

"Local Responsibility."

"The rest is a matter of local responsibility," he declared.

Kelly will be back next week for the passage roll calls, possibly bringing bills to permit Chicago to raise its own supplemental funds. The start was made last night when Kelly's senator, Harold G. Ward, introduced a bill to enable Chicago to tax packages of 20 cigarettes not more than three cents, all revenues to be used for relief.

Legislative leaders who sat with Horner and Kelly part of the night generally held that a lot more talk would be necessary before the special session tries again to pass bills to get rid of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission.

The two Democratic leaders, political rivals, had breakfast and a long talk with small groups of advisors at the executive mansion yesterday. Part of the evening they were alone in the governor's office. Kelly sat on the rostrum as Horner read his special session message to the assembled houses. Then the scene shifted to the speaker's office, where they were joined by a large group of legislators.

Asks Complete Control.

The governor was quoted as emphasizing one point—that if the state takes over the job of handling relief it must have complete control, instead of dividing responsibility with local officials.

Next week there will be more conferences, with less attention being given to such issues as drivers' licenses, constitutional convention, city manager government and the state school board.

Horner's personal appearance to read his message was an opening night surprise, the first time he had in the nine special sessions he has convened. Kelly listened while he insisted that Chicago do more than levy the 30-cent pauper tax, all of which has been spent for this year.

Some four dozen bills were introduced, with both houses holding midnight perfunctory sessions to advance only a few.

On the agreed list, to be signed by the governor, Wednesday, are the Adamowski bills appropriating $4,500,000 extra for relief and limiting its distribution to $500,000 monthly. Also advanced were the utility tax extension and Chicago airport bills.

MEXICO SENDS MUNITIONS TO NIP UPRISING

Mexico City, May 21.—(AP)—A trainload of munitions today was sent into San Luis Potosi, where repeated rumors of impending revolution have stirred the Mexican government to stringent military precautions.

At the same time a group of five senators indicated they would urge President Lazaro Cardenas to expropriate properties of leaders implicated in any uprising.

They suggested such property be applied to indemnifying foreign oil companies for their $400,000,000 possessions taken over by the government March 18.

Turbulent Mexico was uncertain whether it was up against a major revolutionary movement or merely a series of local rebel activities.

While President Lazaro Cardenas concentrated his military forces in the restless state of San Luis Potosi to smother any uprising by the agrarian leader, General Saturnino Cedillo, reports reaching the capital told of at least two rebel bands being in the field.

General Cedillo has evacuated his one-time stronghold in central Mexico and his peasant army has scattered to the hills, leaving Cardenas in firm control of the state capital, San Luis. Cedillo's immediate whereabouts could not be learned.

Of the rebel bands reported on the move, the most important appeared to be that of Pedro Izaguirre, a former major who supported General Cedillo 10 years ago in his campaign to stamp out the "cristeros," a rebellious faction of wild religious tendencies which caused trouble in Jalisco.

Rollie Bennett to Face Police Charge
of Drunken Driving

Rollie G. Bennett, 406 Second street, this city, was arrested this morning at 11 o'clock in Ohio by State Officers Mahan and Flach and brought to Dixon where he is lodged in the county jail, the arrest following an investigation into a wreck on state route 26, two miles south of Halligan's corners, in which Bennett was reported to have crashed into a machine driven by Ralph Fundell, who resides near Princeton.

The left side of Fundell's car was badly damaged and the driver and his daughter, who were en route to Dixon to consult a physician, escaped with only minor bruises. The daughter was taken to Ohio, and later to her home. Sheriff Ward Miller and Deputy Gilbert Finch were summoned to the scene of the wreck and the state officers arrived shortly afterward and conducted the investigation. State Officer Mahan stated he would file a charge against Bennett in Justice J. O. Shaulis' court this afternoon, charging him with the operation of an automobile while in an intoxicated condition, and would recommend that he be held to the grand jury. Mr. Fundell came to Dixon this afternoon to be present when Bennett is arraigned. The front end of Bennett's car was considerably damaged and the machine was hauled to a local garage.

Border Guards Shoot
Two Germans And Tension Rises

BULLETIN

Budapest, May 21.—(AP)—Well-informed quarters tonight reported Czechoslovakia had closed her Polish and German frontiers as the result of mounting tension and disorders over tomorrow's municipal elections.

The same quarters said troops were being moved on both sides of the German-Czech border, one-half of little Czechoslovakia's mountain-fringed frontier.

Four points on the Hungarian frontier also were shut, though officials in Hungary said the borders were open as far as they were concerned.

Premier Bela Imredy's cabinet held a four-hour session which was understood to have been concerned with important developments in anxious Czechoslovakia. As far as could be learned the Hungarian government had made no move but was standing pat watchfully waiting for any break.

Praha, Czechoslovakia, May 21.—(AP)—Germany's little neighbor, Czechoslovakia, called out a reserve class today to bolster her 190,000-man army on the eve of tense municipal elections testing political strength of the 3,500,000 Nazi-supported German minority.

Two Germans were killed by Czech border guards as they attempted to cross into Germany. Scattered disorders preceded the crucial vote.

The reserve call, for part of Czechoslovakia's 1,500,000 trained second line soldiery, came as tension mounted throughout the nation half-surrounded by German military might and in Europe's watchful capital.

(Reports to adjoining Hungary said sand-bag barricades had been erected at Czechoslovakia's military gateway—the Pilsen-Eger road—and machine guns set up by troops taking control of strategic points.)

Crossed Illegally

Czech authorities said the two Germans, shot to death last night near Eger by Czech border guards, were killed when trying to cross into Germany illegally.

The government declared the reserves call in no wise constituted mobilization on the eve of the elections and did not indicate plans for moving new troops to the border.

Official circles emphasized the measure was taken solely in order to bring troops up to full strength with the object of keeping order in view of recent disturbances.

The reserve call came as President Eduard Benes told Czechoslovakia's encircling authoritarian neighbors that the small, World War-created nation was unafraid in facing the present critical situation.

Speaking at Zabor in southern Bohemia where he stopped on a tour of inspection, the president urged placing the commonwealth before private interests and urged political parties to be moderate during the current election campaign.

The present situation in Czechoslovakia, he said, is the country's "most serious experience since the war," but "we are prepared."

Colburn's records show that White's unsolved death had some resemblances to the New Madrid confession.

Factional War in Ranks of Demo
State Committee Nearing An End

Springfield, Ill., May 21.—(AP)—Factional warfare in the ranks of the Democratic State Central Committee appeared near an end today with the Horner administration forces victorious in a move intended to produce harmony for the November election.

Although holding the voting control, members of the faction opposed the leadership of Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago are expected to sanction without arguments the election of Harry B. Hershey of Taylorville as state chairman.

Hershey was named chairman of the Horner faction last week in an advance bolt by the governor's men by ignoring a call for a meeting today by retiring Chairman Bruce Campbell of Belleville.

"We're going along with Governor Horner," Kelly announced during his legislative relief conferences yesterday. "We want harmony. We want to elect every Democrat on the ticket."

The committeemen allied with the Kelly-Nash faction are to meet here late this afternoon to ratify Hershey's election while the Horner faction has arranged a meeting for tonight.

TRIBUTE TO DR.
WARREN MURRAY
AT DEDICATION

Director Bowen, Others
Praise Manager of
State Hospital

The same humanitarian spirit whereby patients of the Dixon state hospital are handled, has been introduced in each of the 30 institutions of Illinois by the state Department of Public Welfare, which is urging the managing officers to improve their institutions by the introduction of the plan. A. L. Bowen, director of the department, paid high tribute to Dr. Warren G. Murray, managing officer of the Dixon state hospital at the services which dedicated new buildings valued at more than $1,500,000, last evening.

"Dr. Murray knows his patients both male and female, by their names and often I have observed him seated on the steps of a ward, surrounded by patients, chatting with them. By this method he has made himself a managing officer who is not feared by the patients, but who is loved by them; he has studied their mannerisms and background by keeping in contact with them, and the department is now urging, so far as is possible, to institute this same system in all of our institutions, penal and charitable," Director Bowen stated.

The director was the principal speaker on the program held in the amusement hall. The attendance was lessened materially through the calling of the special session of the legislature, several members of the General Assembly having signified their intention of being present at yesterday's dedication. Governor Henry Horner was also unable to attend because of the special session.

Not "Institution"

Bowen discouraged the use of the word institution, in referring to state properties such as the Dixon state hospital.

"I do not like the word institution, but like much more to refer to this Dixon state hospital as a city, or community, with a humane government at its head. It is my idea to develop a community rather than just an institution, for here we find children, young people and adults, some sick, some crippled and many others able bodied, all human and all having an interest in what is going on around them. It is our business to see that these interests are developed that these residents of this community, not institutions, are benefited."

SUICIDE THEORY
MAY BE DEFENSE
IN CRABB TRIAL

Will Attempt To Show
Youth Was Not In
The Room

Pekin, Ill., May 21.—(AP)—An apparent plan to rely on the original suicide theory in the gun death of Betty Collison Crabb was outlined to the James Crabb manslaughter trial jury by one of Crabb's attorneys today.

J. M. Powers, associate defense counsel, asserted in opening statements to the jury that evidence would show the 22-year-old banker's son was in another room when the fatal bullet was fired into the night-gown clad body of his 19-year-old bride March 1. The shooting occurred in the Delavan home of Crabb's father, Willis, a bank president.

Powers immediately before had said the defense would show also that the young wife "once wrote that she planned to commit suicide."

Prosecutor's Statement

Preceding the defense's outline of its version, Prosecutor John E. Cassidy had told the jury of central Illinois farmers and tradesmen that the state would prove the death gun was "discharged while in the hand of this defendant."

Testimony that the shooting was apparent suicide first was given by young Crabb and members of his family at the inquest. Later the former University of Illinois student

Building Improvements

BUILD NOW

LIBERAL FINANCING, WHY WAIT?

People are asking, "Should I build now, or should I wait?" Which shall it be?

Up to the present writing there has been no building boom in this country for several years although in the last year or two there has been an increase in construction and prices did move upward in 1937, but building fell off during the last months of the year and prospects for new construction and even remodeling are rather poor so it would seem that those who can do so should plan to build NOW!

We might look ahead a little into the building field. During the recent depression years, a very marked scarcity of houses took place; building did not keep pace with increase of population, new families through marriage, or to take care of obsolete structures.

Government officials have been studying the problem of starting the building business on a veritable boom, realizing that where there is much construction work in progress there is work provided for a vast army of workers in allied industries which contribute material and appliances and furnishings for them.

Today there are not enough homes available to house people comfortably and adequately. Statistics of housing in the cities show a high percentage of rentals and almost 100 per cent occupancy of habitable buildings. The man who builds today will probably build at prices lower than for many years to come, and the terms for financing are particularly favorable.

In fact, it is now proposed to extend FHA Government insurance to private owners up to 90 per cent of the value of houses costing $5,000 and under. For houses over $5,000, there will be a limit of 80 per cent. Interest and service charges will be cut from 5 1/2 to 5 per cent and the insurance will be figured on the mortgage, not on the original sum.

When the ball once begins to roll, with these favorable financing terms and if prices remain somewhat stationary, vacant properties will start to be improved and the boom will be on its way.

So, BUILD NOW!

NEW NITE-LITE

How many bumps and abrasions might be avoided by a little light glowing in the darkness—not to speak of the falls or more serious accidents.

There has been developed recently a small lamp that is called "The Nite-lite" which is just the thing to give a soft illumination to halls, stairways and nurseries or any dark spot in the house which is frequently used, and its operating cost is as little as a half cent per night.

It can be installed quickly by an electrical contractor and if you are now burning a lamp of greater wattage, the saving in current consumption will soon more than pay for the cost of putting in the Nite-lite.

BED ROOMS

Plan your bedrooms so that the head board of the bed is against the wall opposite the doorway. Twin beds may be placed against a wall without crowding if nine feet in width is allowed.

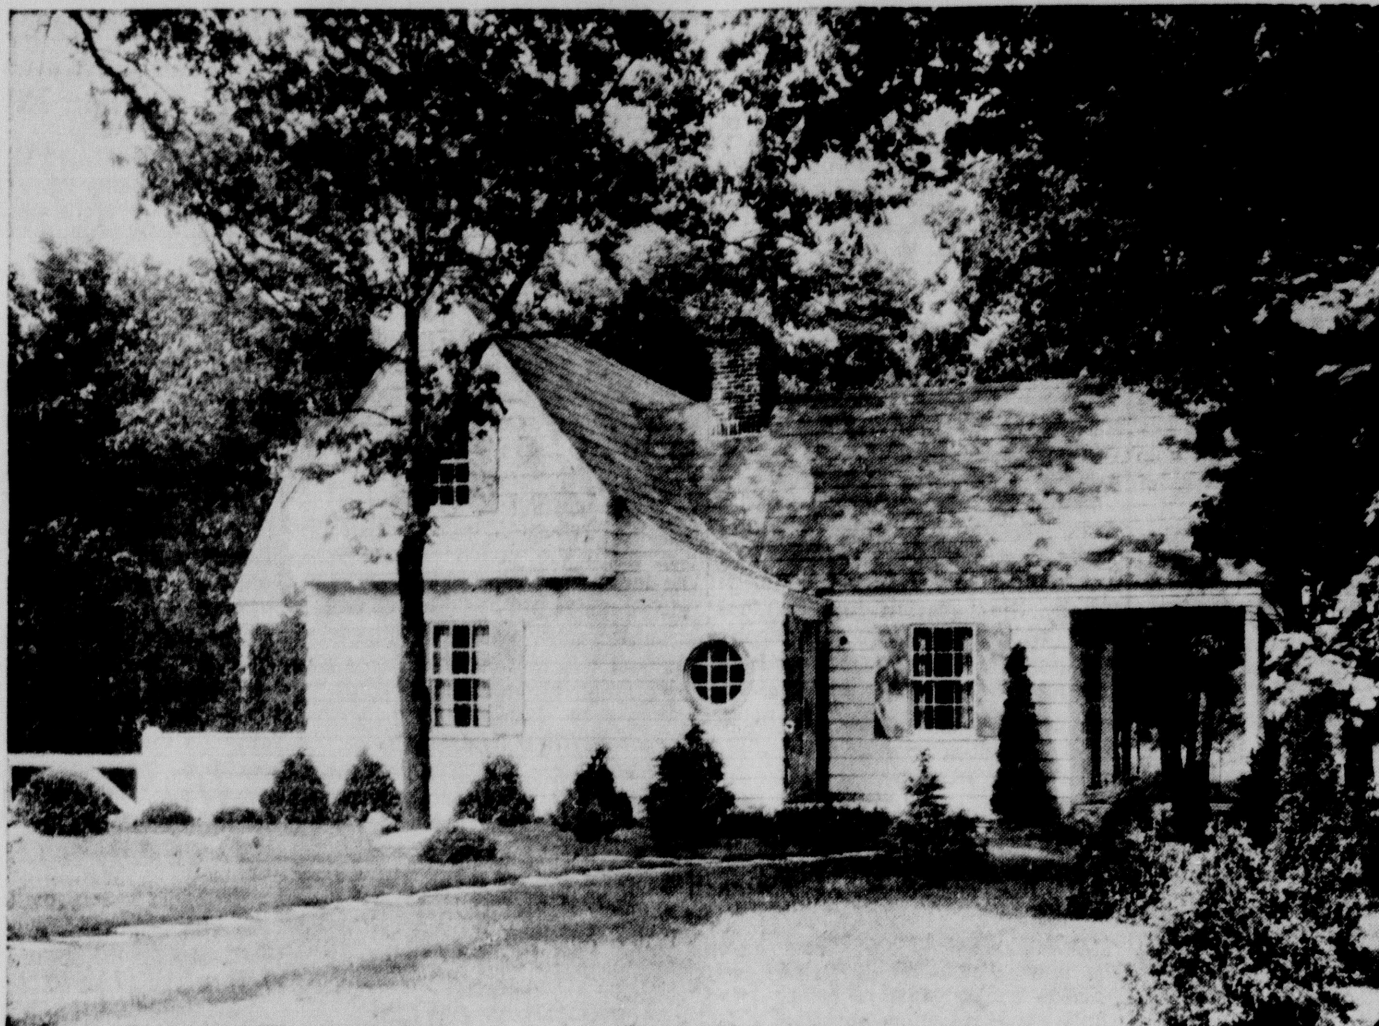

If possible arrange the beds so the occupant sleeps on his right side with his back to the window.

CEDAR CLOSET

A cedar closet at the head of a stairs on the second floor should prove invaluable to the owner of a home.

It is desirable to have such a closet to store linens and woollens, because the cedar lining will keep away moths.

Charming, Low Cost Wood House

This small house, an adaptation of the early Colonial houses, is a most livable type. Because of its flexibility of plan, it will answer the requirements of a great many American families. Attention to such details as unusually ample closet room, adequate spaces for furniture, a great wood-burning fire-place at one end of the living room, livability at any season of the year, makes this house outstanding, combining as it does convenience, low cost, architectural merit and expandability. Almost any small family would find such a home adequate and, what is more important, could afford to own it.

If requirements change in the future, the living room may be enlarged by extending into the porch and enclosing with glass. The kitchen end of the porch might easily be glazed and converted into a small dining room or denette or sunroom.

In this house there is a large balcony over the bedrooms and bath reached from the living room by an open staircase. If desired at some future time, there might be built into this balcony space two large bedrooms and a bath. There is a basement under the bedroom section, reached by a stairs from the kitchen. Here there is ample provision for heating plant, storage, laundry or game room.

THE LION ASSUMES A NEW EXPRESSION
If the Fates have a sense of humor, they must be indulging in a quiet chuckle these days over the queer things that are happening to the well-known British lion. Time was when this lion bared his teeth and claws on the slightest provocation, and had a growl that sent lesser folk scurrying to cover at its first rumble. But that, apparently, was before the "realistic" foreign policy of the present British government was adopted. Under this policy the idea seems to be to go to practically any lengths to conciliate anybody who acts tough. It is, indeed, carried so far that it would be positively scriptural in its turn-the-other-cheek manner, if it were not being accompanied by the most prodigious armament expenditures ever heard of.

Anyway, it all seems to come to a head down in Mexico right now, with Mexico calmly suspending diplomatic relations with Great Britain and perkily reminding London that the British war debt to the United States remains in default.

This is the sort of thing that would have been inconceivable a few years ago. Kipling's "lesser breeds without the law" was meant to include practically everyone outside the British empire, but most of all it referred to people like Mexicans. Kipling must be turning over in his grave at the very thought of Mexico telling England where to head in.

Now all of this adds up to something. It is simply the logical result of the kind of foreign policies the Baldwin and Chamberlain governments have been pursuing in recent years and while those policies are not any particular business of ours, the results which they lead to are well worth our study.

In the last few years the world has seen the emergence of a new kind of nation; the braggart-in-arms, as you might call it, which openly proclaims its contempt for the opinion of the rest of the world, takes what it wants whenever it feels strong enough to do so, and scoffs loudly at the mere suggestion that the world make a sincere effort to settle its differences peacefully.

The present British government seems to have decided to play ball with that kind of nation; to condone seizures of Ethiopia and Austria, violations of treaties and menaces directed at peaceful nations.

By so doing, it has simply invited other nations to act the same way—to disregard protests and try any course of action that they think they can get away with.

Apparently the lesson was not lost on Mexico.

RIGHTS AND LEFTS
The umpire at a ball game in a town in West Virginia called a strike, the batter felt differently about it, and told him so, and presently threw a punch at him.

The umpire took it to court. The judge heard the testimony, meditated briefly, cleared his throat, and announced:

"Case dismissed. It is the inalienable right of a baseball player to get mad and have a fight with an umpire."

This was very jolly, of course, and the story hit the newspapers all over the country. No doubt the glee is widespread by now. Except among umpires. And except among other individuals who may have had the misfortune to appear in court in the kind of case, which might be called the Feature Writers' Revue.

No criticism is intended of the judge's decision, which undisclosed circumstances of the case doubtless made just. It just comes to mind that it's everybody's inalienable right to get mad, but it's not anybody's inalienable right—under the law, at least—to throw a punch at anybody—even an umpire.

The court has to have its fun once in a while, but the citizen has to have—every day in the week—his inalienable right to be considered, not "copy" but merely John Q. himself. The law knows no stooges.

HOLIDAY REFORM

The people of New Jersey have worked themselves into a considerable lather over the issue of shuffling the official holidays around, and you can't blame them.

Passed by the state assembly was a bill moving every holiday to the nearest Monday. The people in favor of bigger and better week-ends were tickled to death, but the people who didn't want to be waving flags and shooting off firecrackers some July morning three days after the rest of the nation were merely tickled at all.

Whatever you think of the every-holiday-a-Monday idea, however, there is definitely a need, not merely in New Jersey, but everywhere, for a few sensible reforms in the whole year-long holiday schedule.

Heads of families have been wishing for generations, for instance, that New Year could be placed just a few pay days further removed from Christmas. And take the matter of wedding anniversaries; how much easier it would be to remember, men, if all wedding anniversaries could be scheduled for the same day all over the country. And how about keeping April 1 moving around all the time so that the kids wouldn't ever know just when to get set? And the 4th of July: never let it start till after 11 A. M., say . . . Somebody get to work on this idea.

Unscrupulous Marina Lorne, whose husband's post office murder has aroused Quano-met, is murdered by a left handed blow from her sister's knife. Pam Frye appeals to Asey Mayo, Cape Cod detective, telling him she found $50,000 worth of ambergis which Marina tried to claim, and hid it after discovering the murder. Pam disappears from Asey's house because an unknown person, who smokes Turkish tobacco, is trailing her to learn the whereabouts of the ambergis. Asey discovers that agreeable Tim Carr, a boarder at the Frye's Octagon House, is left handed, smokes Turkish tobacco, and hated Marina in New York; wealthy Roddy Strutt smashed a new plane in the square; and gabby Nettie Hobbs is swearing Pam is the murderer.

Chapter 14
Asey In Disguise
Asey walked back to the kitchen door and yelled for Jennie. "Where's Syl's truck?" "That old thing? Down in the back garden. He was gettin' loam." "He won't need it today if he's quohoggin'." Asey said. "I'm goin' to take it. An' where's my old paintin' overalls an' coat?" "Asey Mayo," Jennie said in desperation, "you can't wear them in public! They're all torn, so torn I didn't even mend 'em." "Jennie," Asey said, "you roust out my paintin' overalls, an' my coat. An' that cap!" "Not the cap! Oh, Asey, you can't go wearin' that cap! It makes you look like Uncle Corny!" Asey shouted. Uncle Corny, one of the family's blackest sheep, had died in the drunkards' home.

"Go 'long, Jennie," he said. "I'm supposed to not workin' on this case—an' don't you dare tell a soul I am, hear me? Less you tell Pam Frye in jail! An' if I go in my car, with my ev'ryday clothes, they'll bother th' life out of me." "You're goin' to disguise yourself!" Jennie said. "Oh, I see. I didn't understand."

"I'm goin' disguised as Uncle Corny," Asey told her with a grin. "an' if you don't hustle, I'll get real props, like a bottle of gin for my hip pocket. I sort of think that people won't pay much attention to me, in that outfit, an' with Syl's truck."

When he reappeared in ten minutes, Jennie freely admitted that she had never seen the like in all her born days, never.

"Look here, woman," Asey picked up a cap from the table, "this ain't the one I mean. This is my nice clean new one. I want the old dirty one that says in red letters I USE PLYN'S PAINT—DO YOU?"

"Asey, please!" Asey roared in his quarterdeck bellow until Jennie, to stop the noise, reluctantly produced it.

"I'll make you look just like a convict, with that funny visor. You use Plyn's Paint—you know right well that you do no such thing!" Asey laughed. "Then that makes it more of a disguise than meets the eye, don't it? Anyone that knows me knows I don't use Plyn's Paint,—oh, let it pass," he added hurriedly, noticing her expression of bewilderment. "Let it pass."

Jennie eyed the Colt he inserted in a shoulder pocket under his painting coat. "If you was settin' out to see anyone but Nettie Hobbs," she remarked, "I'd say for you to leave that thing behind. But she deserves a gun poked at."

"Jerry," Asey said, "I come to Quano-met to bring a load of loam an' to do some paintin'. That's all. An' you'd better yell at me some more."

Jerry winked elaborately and raised his voice.

Heated Voices

They spent the next quarter hour putting on an act that charmed the tourist trade. Finally, after promising never to ignore another stop signal, Asey took his paint cans and brushes out of the rear of the truck, and joined the crowd that swarmed the streets.

The space in front of Nettie Hobbs's store was teeming with people. Obviously the Woman's Exchange was doing a land office business. Asey edged his way to the windows and stared.

There were fancy calico pan holders, crocheted lettuce bags, aprons of every style and color—all apparently designed for the oversize figure, Asey thought. Any one of them would have made a fine pup tent. There were huge quantities of luncheon sets, embroidered dish towels, beaded cushions bristling with pins, and lines of doll-like door stops made from milk bottles. There were pies, cakes, rolls, dishes of home-made fudge. There was a jar—it was almost a tank—of pickle limes. And the tourist trade was buying left and right.

"Now I wonder," Asey murmured, "I wonder if maybe the ladies ain't pullin' a fast one."

It was the wife of the minister with the wart, who darted out to talk to a woman standing near Asey, who confirmed his suspicions that the ladies were nagging Nettie's stock with church fair material.

"Jane, you've got to help! The Baptists have more aprons—go get 'em from Minnie. And a quilt from the Methodist Chapel. And tell Sally to hurry up those quohog trays she's decorating—we're getting fifty cents apiece for them. I've got all the children at the shore getting shells—they're paying ten cents apiece just for un-decorated ones! And for mercy's sakes, ask Harry where you get pickle limes! We're selling those in there for a quarter each. We—what? Oh, Nettie can't remember where she got these. She's had 'em for years, she says. Jane, you hurry up—we can rebuild every church in town and repave Main Street—if only we can find things to sell!"

"Where's Nettie?" the other woman asked. "What's she got to say about this selling?" "I don't know, and I don't care," the minister's wife returned. "All she's thinking of is the money she's getting for articles and statements. She doesn't give a fig for the churches! She's out back now, talking to someone—more reporters, I shouldn't wonder!"

Asey edged his way out of the crowd and along the sidewalk to the narrow alley that separated the Exchange from Red Men's Hall. Swinging paint cans, he marched up the alley and through the gate into the yard at the rear. Voices—heated voices—issued from the open window in the ell. "The whole thing's absurd, and you know it's absurd, an' you know you're lying like a bloody trooper!" The woman who was speaking accented her words with a good hearty thump on something that resounded emphatically.

"What!" It was Nettie Hobbs whose voice rose to a shrill scream. "What do you mean? I saw Pam Frye kill her. I tell you, I saw it with my own eyes." (Copyright, 1938, Phoebe Atwood Taylor)

Answer to Question No. 1
1. Prof. Warren Middleton, De Pauw University psychologist, as related in the Scientific Monthly, had 12 men and 12 women students write a sentence and then submitted the specimens to 100 men and 100 women students to judge the writer's sex. Roughly 59 per cent of the men and 64 per cent of the women were correct. Numerous other experiments have had about the same results. Women are slightly better judges than men. "Experts" are very little better judges than average educated persons. Middleton observed the following: Women's writing is "neater" and "prettier." Usually men write larger and heavier and, if they write well, write almost perfectly; but women's writing is usually more readable. Women tend more than men to write backhand and to dot their "i's" with a dot whereas men usually dot "i's" with a dash.

Answer to Question No. 2
2. According to Science Service, "flaming youth stands convicted as the greatest group of mass murderers in America." Dr. Harry M. Johnson, of the Highway Research Board of Washington, recently presented charts showing that, whereas drivers under 20 are the quickest and most skillful, yet they kill nearly twice as many people yearly as do the average drivers. Dr. Johnson showed that if drivers up to 25 were even as safe as the average, it would save 8,000 lives yearly. He says they rely on their quickness and skill and take more chances. A frightful indictment of youth!

Oh, yes, we forgot to tell you—a line over a numeral gives it a tenfold value, multiply it by ten. Now if you've solved that, can you write these numbers into Roman numerals? 2,718 1,481,433 372,916 2,447,812. Well, that's that.

Dixon Woman's Club's Fifth Annual Music Festival Attended by Nearly 1,000 Persons

In purpose and in accomplishment the fifth annual Community Music Festival sponsored by the Dixon Woman's club and held last night before nearly 1,000 people in the high school auditorium goes on record as one of the most successful of civic enterprises.

The weeks of preparation and rehearsal were rewarded by a program so well balanced and so sure that everything moved without a hitch.

The combined high school and grade orchestras under the direction of Orville Westger opened the program with selections from Verdi's "Il Trovatore." The evening could not have started on a firmer foundation. The orchestra presented the selections from the familiar opera with an understanding that would have been a credit to many an adult organization. There was remarkable vigor in the performance and the musicians seemed to be on familiar ground.

Old familiar ballads were given their part in the program when the audience joined in community singing with Richard Joslyn directing and Mrs. Charles Bishop as accompanist.

Over a hundred girls' voices demonstrated tonal effects and vocal harmony in two well-directed numbers by the high school chorus with Miss Bergstedt directing. The numbers offered by the girls were "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves" by Purcell and an Irish air, "The Galway Piper."

In the colorful robes of their order the choir boys of Saint Patrick's church sang "Welcome, Pretty Primrose" by Piusini and "Sanctus and Benedictus" from the Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart. The Rev. J. D. Burke directed the Very few cases are hopeless and if your case is hopeless, you will be told so frankly. Get rid of the 19th century idea that if your hair is thinning, you must accept baldness. The science of hair culture has made vast strides since Dad's day. Baldness today is a matter of choice. The man who cares chooses hair, not baldness. The road to baldness is well marked by abnormal hair loss, various forms of dandruff, soreness of scalp, itching, dryness, etc. Heed these warnings. ACT NOW! Bald-No-More removes the causes of baldness and revitalizes the sources of hair growth. The natural result is abundant, healthy hair. Treatment is brief—two minutes per day at home and low in cost. Treatment is pleasant and you will enjoy it as you see the results. Hair is your priceless asset. Take care of it. Choose hair, not baldness! Avail yourself of this opportunity! GOVERNMENT TO

ASK RESTUDY OF
COURT DECISION

Washington, May 21.—(AP)—
The government has sought reconsideration of the Supreme Court's recent Kansas City stock yards decision affecting procedure of quasi-judicial government agencies.

A petition asking reconsideration asserted the court had reversed itself. Action on the petition is expected Monday.

In an opinion, April 25, Chief Justice Hughes described as "fatally defective" the procedure followed by the secretary of agriculture in reducing charges commission men at the stockyards may make. He criticized the failure to give the commission merchants a chance to rebut proposed findings.

Secretary Wallace said in statements that the procedure followed was placed in effect by the previous administration and since had been abandoned.

The petition for rehearing was filed late yesterday by Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson. He asserted that in a decision two years ago on the same litigation the court held that presentation by the secretary of agriculture of a "tentative report" to the commission merchants was not "essential" to the validity of the hearing.

"The court," he added, "now revives the question as to a tentative report and holds that the failure of the secretary of agriculture to serve such a report, five years previously was a 'vital defect'."

Concern Expressed
Over German-Czech
Incidents Today

London, May 21.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax hurriedly returned to the foreign office today to take the helm of British foreign policy personally in the face of increasingly-dangerous
German-Czech incidents.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain kept in close touch with the dangerous situation complicated by the frontier killing of two Germans by Czech guards, the calling up of Czech army reserves and reports sandbag barricades had been thrown up on Czech roads between Eger and Pilsen.

British officials displayed concern over the Sudeten German mi-nority's refusal to negotiate with the Czech government unless prior guarantees were received. This, Britons, felt, would be putting the cart before the horse since such guarantees then could not come into the negotiations.

An authoritative Czech source in London said it was believed Adolf
Hitler, though ambitious to absorb Czechoslovakia's 3,500,000 Germans, did not plan a military coup against his eastern neighbor this week-end.

Men In Striped
Overalls Hunted
For Kidnaping

Chicago, May 21.—(AP)—Three men in striped overalls who abduced a United States mail messenger in Whiting, Ind., and robbed him of a sack of first class mail after driving him in a car to the southern limits of Chicago were hunted today by postal inspectors.

Frank Owens of Whiting, the messenger, was forced into the car by the three men near the New York Central depot in the Indiana city. He said they put a flour sack over his head.

Postal inspectors said they did not believe the sack contained any registered or other valuable mail.
They expressed belief the robbers may have expected to find a Standard Oil Company payroll in the pouch.

Robberies, Chicago 2,222 and Peoria five; aggravated assaults, Chicago, 310 and Peoria, three; burglaries, Chicago, 2,649 and Peoria, 21;

Harlan County's
Recessed Today

London, Ky., May 21.—(AP)—
This small southeastern Kentucky town relaxed today for the first time this week with the Harlan county conspiracy trial in recess for the week-end.

When federal court reconvenes
Monday the selection of two alternates to supplement the already completed jury panel of 12 will be the order of business.

The roll of defendants has been reduced to 64, including 20 corporations by the dismissal of charges against the Black Mountain Corporation and Elbert J. Asbury, an official of the company.
The dismissal was at the instance of government attorneys.

"The government seeks to prove the defendants criminally conspired to prevent unionization of Harlan county coal fields.

Huge Undies

Oklahoma City, May 21.—
(AP)—Step right up, ladies and gents, and see the biggest undies in these parts.

Earle A. Goodenow, Oklahoma City knit garment dealer, was showing them off today—
a pair of size 80 shorts, made especially for Beaumont, Texas, man.

Goodenow heard the Texan's wife had worn her fingers to the bone stitching home-made models, so he came to her aid.

Ford, Dewey

Auto Manufacturer Says
'We Are All On Spot'

Henry Ford and District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey were the main speakers at the seventeenth annual dinner of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association,
a feature of the annual A. N. P. A. convention in New York, April 28.

Mr. Ford delivered a cryptic, twenty-six word speech. He said:
"We are all on the spot. Stick to your guns, and I will help you with the assistance of my son, all can. Thank you!"

Afterward Mr. Ford was asked what he meant by "on the spot."
"I am as much on the spot as the newspapers," he replied.

"They're after us. They're trying to kill competition."
"Who is?"

"The powers that be. I don't mean the government, but the people behind the government."

"Mr. Ford's speech speaks for itself," said W. J. Cameron, spokesman for the Ford Motor Co.

Mr. Dewey told the publishers that newspapers should make full use of their power to smash crime, racketeering, and corrupt political machines.

He said: "Many newspapers tail against abuses in federal government, but too often they maintain both news and editorial silence concerning local conditions which affect daily lives of their readers."

"If we want decent government in America we must begin at home.
Our people turn out every four years for a great national referendum, but almost half of them ignore their own local elections."

The speakers were introduced by S. E. Thompson, publisher of the Chicago TIMES. More than 1,500 newspapermen and their guests attended the banquet.

Trial Of Pair On Pandering Charges
Held Over Weekend

Champaign, Ill., May 21.—(AP)—
The trial of Eugene Haddad and Grover Loeffler of Champaign on charges of pandering was recessed for the week-end after Bertha Peterson, 18, of Peoria, testified against them in county court yesterday.

Miss Peterson said the defendants forced her into a life of vice after they had induced her to come to Champaign on the pretext she would be employed as a night club hostess.

In Peoria, the witness said, she worked in two night clubs and a disillery.

A motion by the prosecution to increase Haddad's and Loeffler's bonds to $2,000 from $500 was granted by the court.

Heavy Rain Delays
State Track Meet

Champaign, Ill., May 21.—(AP)—
A heavy rain which fell all morning flooded the track at the University of Illinois stadium today and delayed the start of final events in the 44th Illinois interscholastic track and field meet almost an hour.

At 1 o'clock, scheduled time for start of the meet, the track was under several inches of water. A corps of sweepers worked most of the water into the drains, but the track was dotted with puddles as the high hurdles lined up for opening race.

The slippery runways forced meet officials to move the remaining field events to the university armory.

CARBONDALE FAVORED FOR TRACK TITLE

Southern Teachers Lead Qualifiers; 13 Finalists

Normal, Ill., May 21.—(AP)—Southern Illinois Teachers of Carbondale, conquerors of Northern in the recent State Teachers college meet, stood out a heavy favorite today to replace the same DeKalb team as champion of the Illinois Intercollegiate conference track and field meet.

Southern led the qualifiers in yesterday's five track events by placing 13 men in the finals. State Normal was next with six while the defending champion DeKalb team placed five. Preliminaries were held to the five contests by agreement of the coaches.

Meanwhile, Western Teachers set the pace in the conference golf tournament with Sid Simpson, former Iowa high school star, leading the qualifiers with an 18-hole card of 73. Kreider of Eureka followed one stroke back.

Rain Halts Play.
In the tennis tournament, players from Eastern, State Normal, Eureka and Elmhurst played through two rounds of singles and one of doubles before rain halted play.

After yesterday's athletic activity, conference representatives held their annual spring meeting and accepted the resignations of McKendree and Shurtliff, reducing the league to nine members—St. Viator, Eureka, Elmhurst, Carthage, State Normal, Eastern, Western, Southern and Northern Teachers.

The conference also awarded the annual cross country meet in November to State Normal and voted that President Frank W. Phillips, who presented his resignation, continue in office until December when an election will be held.

SHERIFF URGES FANS SUPPORT DIXON'S NINE

Comments Knack For Foresight in Promoting Sport

Sheriff Ward Miller, a former Chicago Cub player who played the outfield under the late Manager Frank Chance, today heartily approved the organization of amateur baseball teams throughout Lee county among youthful sandlotters. He commended Walter Knack, sponsor of the semi-pro team of Dixon and the members of the teams comprising the league. In interesting promising young players in playing baseball. "Baseball is a great character builder and during the school vacation period provides wholesome diversion for boys," Sheriff Miller stated. "Dixon post of the American Legion accomplished a great deal of good among the boys of Dixon last summer in promoting baseball, and I hope that the program will not be permitted to be dropped this season. Boys who engage in playing baseball during their spare time are not of the type to require official watching. The sport provides entertainment and development of mind and body as well as clean sportsmanship, the ability to give and take.

"Boys who are interested in baseball do not have time to commit criminal acts. They also gain the support and admiration of the adult citizens and after all, the sand lots of the country are the most likely places for the development of big league material and the major league scouts soon learn of the outstanding players."

The sheriff congratulated the officers of the Illinois State league, the sponsors and managers of the teams and team members in one sentence. "They are entitled to the support of the fans in all of their games and should enjoy a wholesome and profitable season."

STYMIED!

Baton Rouge, La.—(AP)—Paul Leslie, Louisiana State university golf champion, hopes his third attempt to capture the national intercollegiate crown at Louisville, Ky., June 27-July 2 will be luckier. Charles (Chuck) Kocsis of the University of Michigan beat Leslie in the 1936 finals. His teammate Freddie Haas, put him out of the 1937 finals.

WALKER CUPPERS ARE FINE ARRAY OF GOLF STARS

Britain's Team Will Face United States June 3 and 4

By SCOTTY RESTON.
St. Andrews, Scotland (AP)—Notes on Britain's Walker cup players who meet the United States team here June 3-4: Jimmy Bruen (Ireland)—Most promising youngster produced in British golf since the war. He weighs 196, stands six feet, and just turned 18. Looks like Willie Goggin, the United States pro. Has high, looping swing, but keeps it under control. Judgment and poise are remarkable for a youngster. He has tendency to slice in wind, but his confidence is boundless and he'll be tough. Holds Irish amateur title, won British boys' championship in 1936. Son of former British army officer, he lives on an estate overlooking Cobh harbor. Jack Higgins, pro at the Cork golf club, taught him the game. In eight rounds over the Old Course, he was 15 under four. If he can keep that up in the matches, he'll give somebody a headache.

Best Striker.
Lester "One-Under-Fours" Crawley (England)—Probably the finest striker of the all in England. Aged 34, has receding red hair, freckles, and a fierce disinterested red moustache. Pupil of Henry Cotton, who recently changed his grip and made his swing more upright. Better medal than match player. One of the finest cricket and squash players in Britain. He won the English Amateur championship in 1931. A good, sound player, he has played 19 competitive rounds of golf in an average of 72 since the first of the year.

Charlie Stowe (England)—Slashing, happy-go-lucky miner, who's worked in the pits since he was 16. In 1928 he was barred from amateur competition for caddying after the age of 16. Later he was reinstated by the Royal and Ancient Club. He is a perennial winner of the Midland championship and is capable of phenomenal scores. He's just the type of player who may go wild in the matches.

Well-Liked By Experts.
Gordon Peters (Scotland)—Handsome Glasgow insurance salesman, and, with Crawley, one of the finest swingers on the British team. He was well-liked by experts in the last Walker cup match at Pine Valley. He's a great fighter, and very much at home in the wind of the Scottish seaside links. He's capable of giving anybody a good fight.

Frank Pennink (England)—Winner of the English championship for the last two years. He's typically Oxford in manner and appearance—casual, almost too casual, handsome, well-dressed. Usually a great putter, he has been having sudden lapses on the greens. He was not good in the cup trials here, and he's far from a stylish player, but his in-

Cummings Gives Starting Lineup Tomorrow's Game

Manager Bert Cummings announced his starting line-up this morning for tomorrow's baseball game with Welland at Reynolds field.

The following players will start: Kuhn, left field; McDonald, shortstop; Martin, centerfield; O. Prestegard, pitcher; Miller, right field; Mulachy, catcher; B. Prestegard, third base; Bush, first base; A. Carlson, second base.

The game will begin promptly at 2:30 P. M. and will be the first appearance of the Dixon Knacks in their new uniforms of gray with red letters. The contest is Dixon's first home game and the second played by the locals in the Illinois State league.

difference will help him in play before the ecstatic Scottish galleries. Fred Robson taught him the game. Alex Kyle (Scotland)—Master of the pitch and run, this young cloth designer has equalled Bobby Jones' amateur record of 68 for the Old Course. All his iron shots are wind-cheaters, and like Peters, he's naturally good on the seaside courses. Though a Scot, he now works in England and has twice held the Yorkshire championship.

Hector Thomson (Scotland)—Shy, likeable son of a Scottish professional, he won the British Amateur championship in 1936, but wore himself out in 1937 and was so nervous couldn't even defend championship. He has recovered now and is swinging better than ever. If his nerves hold up, he is capable of beating anybody in the world. Bobby Jones predicted great things for him. That should be enough.

Shrewd Player.
Harry Bentley (England)—The shrewdest and most unorthodox player on the team. He has held the English championship and now holds the German title. Married beautiful German actress last year. Like Crawley, he is a disciple and good friend of Henry Cotton. Uncanny around the greens, he has studied and understands the St. Andrews course. On the vast Old Course greens, Bentley, who was the only British player to tie a singles match at Pine Valley in 1936, will be a good match for almost anybody.

John Beck (England)—Non playing captain. He has played in these matches himself, is popular with the men, and is a natural competent leader.

CHICAGO VOTES TO CONTINUE IN BIG TEN LEAGUE

Will Schedule Easier Foes While Recoup Grid Fortunes

Columbus, Ohio, May 21.—(AP)—Chicago will remain in the Big Ten—toughest collegiate football conference in the country—and it intends to recoup its defunct grid-iron fortunes.

Clark Shaughnessy, lanky Maroon coach, explained it this way: "We're down at the bottom of the heap now. But we're going to lay off some of the tough teams for a while and schedule more schools of our calibre."

"Our material is very limited, but we have hopes things will turn for the better and we'll be up there with the rest of them in a few years."

"All this about our leaving the conference is just talk," Shaughnessy who attended a tumultuous 1941 schedule-drafting meeting of Big Ten coaches and athletic directors here yesterday, restricted his card for that year to three Big Ten games—Illinois, Ohio State and Michigan, traditional rivals.

Shaughnessy had an easy day of it insofar as forming a 1941 card was concerned, but it was a weary session for the other conferees, especially Chicago's Alvin "Bo" McMillin and Mal Elward of Indiana and Purdue Universities, respectively.

McMillin and Elward, whose schools are located in small Indiana cities where football gate receipts are necessarily low because of limited seating facilities, waged a losing fight to obtain more than one home game each in 1941.

REDS PROVE REAL THREAT TO LEADERS

Will McKechnie Is Putting Cincy On Its Feet

By SID FEDER.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
Prof. Will McKechnie's Magic Marvells, the show that wowed in Boston last year, is giving the boys and girls in Cincinnati a lot of entertainment this season, and spreading no end of anxious moments among the seven other clubs in the National League.

During the winter, Cincinnati, having disposed of Chuck Dressen, lured McKechnie from the Bees to see what he could do about the Reds, who finished a dismal last in 1937. And Prof. Will is showing them in the best way possible—the official standings, which have his lads in fourth place right now and make them look like a pretty good threat for any loose first-division berths.

His prize product to date has been Johnny Vandermeer. Johnny up for a trial last year, was so wild the catchers demanded peach baskets and fishing nets to receive his stuff. Recalled this spring, he was given the official McKechnie double-O and promptly ordered to alter his delivery from a side-arm motion to an overhand. It worked wonders.

Blanks Grants 5-0.
The McKechnie influence in his particular case stood out all over the place yesterday as Johnny blanked the slipping Giants, 4-0, with a five-hit job of elbowing. Only one of Bill Terry's Terrors got as far as third base against him as he handed the champions their second straight shutout defeat and made it three wins in four starts for the Reds against the league leaders. The win boosted the Reds into the 500 class, with 14 victories in 28 games.

For the Giants, the setback cut their league lead to 3 1/2 games over the second-place Cubs, who almost tore down the fences in the Phillies' "telephone booth" ball park with a 22-hit attack for a 16-7 victory.

In the only other National League game, the Dodgers topped the Pirates, 7-5, although Van Mungo was belted out of the box.

Cleveland's Indians maintained their slim first-place margin in the American League by trouncing Washington's slumping Senators, 6-3. The second-place Boston Red Sox stayed in the thick of the fight by belting St. Louis pitching for 22 hits and a 16-2 decision over the Browns. Lefty Grove won his seventh straight in this one, not only pitching an eight-hitter, but driving in four runs as well.

Schoolboy Rowe lasted seven innings, just long enough to be charged with the defeat as the Athletics trounced the Tigers, 5-2. The Yankees-White Sox and Cardinals-Bees games were rained out.

Moline Striking More Respectable Pose In Three-I

Chicago, May 21.—(AP)—Moline, the 1937 Three-I league baseball champion, struck a more respectable pose today.

After several weeks of hovering in and out of the second division, the Ploxyboys held a tie for third place with Waterloo. The advance resulted from yesterday's 4 to 3 triumph over Cedar Rapids while Waterloo was losing a 2 to 1 decision to Clinton. Calmer not only pitched the defending champions to victory, but aided with a home run.

The two leaders, Evansville and Springfield, both met defeat. Evansville dropped its second straight game when rain ended play at Bloomington in the sixth inning with the home club ahead, 3 to 2. At Decatur, the Combies broke loose for all their runs in a big eighth inning to turn back Springfield, 5 to 2.

LIVE BALL.

Chicago.—(AP)—Manager Charlie Grimm of the Cubs admits Dizzy Dean didn't show him many fast balls after he came from the Cardinals, but Grimm said Dizzy had a "live ball." "There's a lot of difference between that and the ball thrown by a pitcher whose arm is gone. Plenty of difference if you get what I mean."

Eton college, England's famous boys' school was founded by Henry VI in 1440.

DISCUS RECORD BROKEN IN PREP TRACK CLASSIC

Only Mark Surpassed; Two Champions Are Already Crowned

Champaign, Ill., May 21.—(AP)—One record already had been surpassed and two champions crowned in the Illinois state high school track and field meet entered its final day today.

When coaches decided to move up finals in both the discus and javelin events yesterday, big Herndon Wright of East Moline, defending champion, hurled the disc 140 feet 7 1/2 inches to surpass the old mark of 139 feet 8 inches set by Faymonville of Winnetka in 1934. Walter Evers of Collinsville then sailed the javelin 179 feet 8 inches, more than 10 feet short of the record of 190 feet, but enough to carry off 1938 honors.

Oak Park, the defending team champion, demonstrated it was out to repeat its 1937 triumph by leading the qualifiers with seven men. However, New Trier of Winnetka, was right behind with six entries. Highland Park placed three men, while Moline, Du Sable (Chicago), Danville, East Moline, East St. Louis, York (Elmhurst), Proviso (Maywood), Toulon and Rockford each had two.

Included 3 Events.
Moline's two included three events since its Negro sprint star, Flip Anders, qualified to defend both his 100 and 220-yard dash titles. He hung up the best times in each event—10.1 in the century and 21.9 in the 220.

In yesterday's two final events, Clawson of Kankakee placed second behind Wright in the discus with Dalton of Hurst Bush, third. Freeman of York, fourth, and Harper of Centralia, fifth. Whitmore of Mendota was second to Evers in the javelin, followed in order by Pinnow of Freeport, Bell of Woodstock and Morgan of Glenbard (Glen Ellyn).

In the tennis tournament, Lincoln's doubles team of Bob Parker and Fred McShane, supplied the biggest upset of the day in eliminating the No. 1 seeded combination of Lacey-Coulas of Jacksonville. Lincoln met Carbondale's Haeg and Cox in today's semi-finals. The favored No. 2 team of Bauman and Smid of Oak Park opposed Glenbard's entry of Olsen and Scuv.

The singles semi-finals was made up of seeded stars. John Jorgensen of Parker high, Chicago, seeded No. 1, bowled over Ruth of Galesburg and Green of Bloomington for the right to face Norm Wendell of Granite City. In the opposite bracket, Bob Ryland of Tilden, Chicago, faced John Aldrich of Galesburg.

INDIANA STILL LEADS BIG TEN BASEBALL RACE

Chicago, May 21.—(AP)—Indiana continued to lead the Big Ten baseball race today, thanks to some timely hitting and another masterful pitching demonstration by big Bill Smith.

The Hoosiers were held to five safe blows by Wisconsin's Bob Hendrichs yesterday and 10 of them fanned, but in the fourth inning they combined Hendrichs' only pass with Ernie Andres' double and a single by Ken Hobson to defeat the Badgers, 2 to 0. Smith, meanwhile, held the Wisconsin team to seven scattered hits.

Victory was the sixth in a row for Indiana against one defeat, and enabled it to maintain its one-game lead over Purdue. The Boiler-makers turned back Ohio State, 3 to 1, behind the four-hit pitching of Arnold Bredewater. In yesterday's only other game, Iowa shelled two Chicago pitchers for a 14 to 6 triumph that sent the Hawkeyes into third place.

The same teams play again today. Northwestern and Illinois join the program with a game at Champaign, Ill.

I. N. U. Co. Softball Team Beats Knacks Phillies Friday

The I. N. U. Co. captured by "Pee Wee" Schertner edged out the strong Knacks Phillies softball ten by a 6 to 5 score Friday afternoon.

Fordham and Long were the batterymen of the Phillies while Floyd Derby and Fane pitched and Bartlett acted as catcher for the I. N. U. Co. The Knacks Phillies got nine hits and three errors while the I. N. U. team collected ten hits and made no errors.

The box score was not available.

Good Turnout For First Practice of Junior Legion Boys

Members of the Junior Legion baseball league held their first practice session of the season last evening.

About thirty-five boys responded to the first call and all seemed in fine condition. This was a very good turnout for the first call. The next practice will be at 5 P. M. Monday. It is the wish of the committee that every eligible boy in Dixon be present if possible.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)
Johnny Vander Meer and Ernie Lombardi, Reds—Former pitcher fired hit shutout as Lombardi drove in three runs with homer and single for 4-0 win over Giants.

Dario Lodigiana, Athletics—Hit double and single, driving in two runs in 5-2 victory over Tigers.

Ernie Koy, Dodgers—His homer, double and single drove in two runs and paced attack in 7-5 victory over Pirates.

Johnny Allen, Indians—Although touched for ten hits, he was tight in the pinches to top Senators, 6-3.

Stan Hack, Cubs—Got four hits, Danville, in three runs and scored two others in 16-7 win over Phillies.

In 'Bloody Harlan County' Trial

Concentrating its legal experts in London, Ky., the federal government is bringing court action to enforce the National Labor Relations act in "bloody Harlan county" under criminal indictments charging 69 defendants with conspiracy. Former Sheriff Theodore R. Middleton, left, is one of those charged with intimidating the miners. Thomas Ferguson, a United Mine Workers' organizer, is shown below exhibiting the bloody shirt he wore the night he was shot as he left a union meeting, according to his testimony before the Senate Civil Liberties committee.

Simone Simon--Hollywood Enigma

Particularly seductive is this pose of Simone Simon, glamorous actress who has all Hollywood wondering about the identity of the "friend" to whom she gave two golden keys which would open her front door. Simone is one of the most changeable persons in the movie colony. Sometimes she appears exotic, as above, and sometimes she looks like just a little girl. The story of her golden keys came out in court during trial of her secretary, Sandra Martin, on charges of taking some of Simone's money.

Gandhi Foretells Own Death

Nearing 70, and with the feebleness of age weighing heavily on his slight figure, Mahatma Gandhi, sainted leader of 3,000,000 members of the Indian National Congress, recently declared that he would not live another year. Wearing a wet towel about his head as protection against the heat, he is pictured above, surrounded by admirers, he left Allahabad for a conference with the British viceroy.

Hold U. S. Nazi on Anti-Klan Law

Arrested on complaint of Roy B. Monahan, head of the Disabled War Veterans of America, Henry Hauck, member of a U. S. Nazi group, is shown above with a police officer after posting $1000 bail. His arrest and warrants for five officers of the German-American Settlement League, Inc. were based on a 15-year-old state law originally enacted to curb the Ku Klux Klan. Hauck is manager of Camp Siegfried, Yaphank, L. I., summer playground of Nazi groups in the New York area, against whose activities local residents have long complained.

How's Your Osculation?

If the newly-invented kiss-o-meter is as accurate as it's cracked up to be, the above is osculatory perfection. P. N. Vandekieft, a student, and Dorothy White, radio actress, are shown sending the indicator as high as it will go on the device built at Armour Institute of Technology in Chicago to appraise amorous activity. Experimenters—strictly in the interest of science, of course—grasp brass electrodes in one hand and then go into their act, registering "timid," "synthetic," "passive"—or better. If young Vandekieft and Miss White were at a carnival they would win cigars or something, because they "rang the bell."

3000 Push Hunt for Lost Child

With more than 3000 men answering the call for a final desperate search of the forests north of Bradford, Pa., hope that 4-year-old Marjorie West, above, might be found alive was fast waning as the volunteers failed to uncover a trace of the child. The girl disappeared during a Mother's Day outing with her family.

Polish Airmen Wing for Home on Goodwill Flight

Flying one of the dozen or more Lockheed 14s being built for Polish Air Lines, five Polish aviators are winging for Warsaw on an ambitious flight that takes them from the Lockheed factory in Los Angeles through Central and South America, and across the South Atlantic to Africa, with a final non-stop hop to their homeland. The plane, shown above, is reputed to be the fastest transport in the world, with a cruising speed of 250 m.p.h. Powered by two engines, it has a cruising range of 2000 miles and accommodates 14 passengers. The map shows the route the fliers are taking. The fliers themselves are shown in the insets. Maj. Wladyslaw Makowski, general manager of Polish Air Lines, is in charge of the flight.

Yankees at King George's Court

Dressed in their finest for presentation to King George VI and Queen Elizabeth are Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, center, and her daughters, Kathleen, left, and Rosemary, pictured in the above photo radioed from London, as they appeared at the season's first royal court at Buckingham Palace. Mrs. Kennedy's gown of white lace was embroidered with silver and gold. Kathleen wore a picture dress of white tulle trimmed with white rosettes with silver centers. Rosemary's gown was of white tulle, trimmed with white baillots. Mr. Kennedy, the new U. S. ambassador to London, wore full evening dress—not the customary satin knee breeches and silk stockings.

Vive la France! Vive la France!

Clergymen Hit His Priest Pose

Announcing that its members regretted only the means used, the Seattle Methodist Ministers Association has issued a statement criticizing the donning of priest's robes by Joe McCauley, above, state patrol officer, to get a confession from Mrs. Mary Eleanor Smith in connection with the slaying 10 years ago of Ensign James Eugene Bassett. McCauley persuaded the 73-year-old woman convict to "make peace with her Maker." She implicated her son, Decastro Earl Mayer, in her statement and pleaded with him to confess, but he refused.

Order 'Witch' to Leave Town

Because townsfolk claimed her witchcraft made many persons ill and "hexed" a young girl, Mrs. Irene Ray, above, 60-year-old Indian squaw, has been ordered to leave Rochester, Ind. Arrested on charges of vagrancy, Mrs. Ray agreed to quit the city with her white husband after her release from jail. Indiana has no witchcraft laws.

Just an Old Southern Custom

The June wedding season comes on—and above is a scene that will be re-enacted many times at nuptials in southern states as the bride and groom toast their marriage from an antique, double wedding cup of gold. Pictured raising the cup in historic Immanuel Episcopal church at LaGrange, Tenn., are Hubert Fisher, Jr., and Mary Ann Poston, both of Memphis. The bridegroom drinks champagne from the larger container while the bride sips at the same time from the smaller one. This particular wedding cup has been in the family of Judge Charles N. Burch for many generations.

Mr. Kelley Is 109, His Wife 105

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kelley's formula for longevity—an unwavering faith in the Creator, hard work and moderation in all things—seems to be a good one, for they have been married 81 years; Mr. Kelley is 109, Mrs. Kelley 105. Pictured above, they celebrated the other day with a trip to Longview, Texas, from their farm 12 miles away. Mr. Kelley was turned down when he tried to enlist in the Confederate army during the Civil War. Medical examiners said his health was poor, that he couldn't live long.

This Girl Does NOT Want to Die

And Thinks Mercy Deaths Are Unjust To Doctors

Phyllis Drudy, youthful Clarksburg W. Va., girl, met setbacks in her dancing career, suffered a broken back, complicated by pleurisy, but fought each reverse bravely. She thinks those who advocate "mercy death" for themselves lack courage and clear sight.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

Due to the inclement weather, the illustrated lecture given by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schade under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church at the church last evening, drew only a small but appreciative audience.

The first reel of film shown was of Italy with the small Italian villages scattered on the mountain side, and some fine views of Vesuvius, which overlooks the city of Pompeii.

Mrs. Schade in speaking of Pompeii mentioned various things which had been found by excavating and told that excavations were being made continually. A picture of the coliseum in Rome gave one an idea of the immensity of the structure.

In the film of Egypt the first view was of the Suez Canal which is known as the water highway of the world. This canal is 88 miles long but only wide enough for two boats to pass. An excellent picture shown of a camel caravan, and one of the Nile River with beautiful palm trees along one side and modern buildings along the other side.

In the various street scenes one noted the many veiled women, and as to the architecture of Egypt we find that it is mostly Moslem.

Hawaii is called the Paradise of the Pacific and in this film we enjoyed a panoramic view of Honolulu. A 75,000 acre field of pineapples gave one an idea of the great pineapple industry in Hawaii and one factory alone is said to have an output of 3½ million cans a day. The sausage trees were rather an oddity and Mrs. Schade explained that the natives used these sausages as a cure for rheumatism. The dances of the Hula girls to the accompaniment of the ukelele and drum were very attractive.

A film taken by the Schades in Rochester, Minn. last year gave the audience some idea of the many people who daily come to this city, seeking relief from various ailments and afflictions. In this city of Rochester with its 24,000 population, we find there are 10 hospitals which contain 1600 beds. To verify the fact that people come from every state in the Union, from Canada, and even from other countries, the Schades showed pictures of license plates on cars parked near the clinic. The new clinic building was built in 1927 and the Mayo Park is a real beauty spot. This park was given in memory of William Worrell Mayo, father of Dr. Charles and Dr. William Mayo.

The film of India gave us a picture of one of the most romantic countries in the world. India has a population of 435 million with Delhi as the capital city. The pictures took the audience to Benares, the Holy City of the Hindus, and there were many views of the Ganges river, the waters of which are black, yellow and muddy but nevertheless people drink it and bathe in it, for bathing is one of their religious rites. A wonderful picture of the Taj Mahal was shown, which is said to be the most beautiful building in the world, built of white marble at a cost of 20 millions of dollars.

The last film, a colored one, gave views of Bali, Ceylon and other places visited by the Schades. On display were wood carvings brought from Bali, parrots from Japan, and many beautiful pieces of handicraft.

Those who attended the lecture were glad to see these pictures and hear Mrs. Schade tell about them.

WILLIAM BOHART

Funeral services for the late William Bohart who passed away at his home here on Saturday afternoon, were held at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon.

William Bohart was born in London, England, on October 21, 1861, and died at his home in Ashton, Saturday, May 14 at 4:40 P. M.

Mr. Bohart was of German parentage, his father and mother, William Bohart and Maria Bohart, nee Heuer, being natives of Sonstadt, Germany. After their marriage they moved to England and resided in the city of London for a period of eight years, during which Mr. Bohart was born. When a lad of four he came with his parents to the United States and they settled in Ashton.

The elder Mr. Bohart found employment with the Chicago and NorthWestern railroad and when the younger William was old enough to seek employment he too was given work with the railroad company. After retiring from railroad work, Mr. Bohart engaged in the draying business which was a profitable occupation.

Mr. Bohart was united in marriage with Mrs. Susan Clothier on January 24, 1894, and after over 30 years of married life Mrs. Bohart passed away on Dec. 20, 1924.

When the government inaugurated the rural mail service, Mr. Bohart became one of the rural carriers, taking up his duties on September 1, 1903 and serving faithfully for over 23 years, when he was retired on a pension on account of his age. He made many fast friendships during his long service among the patrons on his route.

On March 22, 1934, Mr. Bohart was united in marriage with Mrs. Mary Petersmeyer, who survives him and who has been his constant companion in sickness and health. Mr. Bohart is also survived by three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Mary Andrews of Rockford, Mrs. Bruce Worley and Mrs. George Aschenbrenner, both of Dixon, and Frank Bohart of this place. He was preceded in death by his father who passed away Oct. 26, 1887 and his mother who died on February 18, 1923. Also a sister, Mrs. Charles Grieve of this city and a brother, John of Chicago.

Mr. Bohart was brought up in the Lutheran faith, and was confirmed by Rev. Henry Stauffenberg on April 23, 1876. He united with the local Presbyterian church about 40 years ago, and was an active member, most of those years being a member of the choir.

The funeral services were in charge of Rev. F. Louis Grafton, Mrs. Lloyd Attig singing two comforting hymns accompanied by John D. Charters at the organ. The casket bearers were, Ralph J. Dean, John J. Wagner, Henry W. Krug, William F. Klingebiel, Isaac Trask, and Joseph A. Roessler. Interment was made in the local cemetery.

SPEED SPECTACLE OF 500-MILE RACE
CAN'T BE 'SELLOUT' DESPITE CROWDS

The field coming around a turn as the infield crowd sees it. Below, a portion of the parked cars at the last race.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—It's the boast of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway that there cannot be a sellout, though the 500-mile race May 30th undoubtedly will again attract the largest attendance of any sporting event in America.

The secret behind this, as revealed by T. E. Myers, general manager, is that there are thousands of free parking spaces available in the infield.

Even with 65,000 spectators seated in the nine grandstands and three infield bleacher stands, he says, "there is a huge surplus of parking space in the infield. Behind the pits along the main straightaway, there are 4,000 parking spaces for cars which are reserved, all the rest are free. On the north and south turns, and along the back stretch there is a mile and a half of free parking space. It is estimated that 75,000 cars could be accommodated in the infield, though there is never anywhere near that number, and figuring four persons to a car 300,000 could see the race from those points."

That would give Indianapolis 365,000 persons. The attendance last year was nowhere near that figure although the largest crowd in history, and the crowd was easily handled in the 13 motor cars and the 25 foot gates, all of which open at six o'clock the morning of the race. By the time the race starts at 10 o'clock, the race crowd has been sped through completely.

Those is the infield make Race Day a picnic. They enjoy the pre-race ceremonies, the parade, band concert, bomb salutes, and watching the race until noon, they open their luncheon hampers and enjoy a repast.

By the time the most thrilling sport event in the world is approaching its final stages, the vast crowd is in rare good humor, and enjoying every moment of the speed battle. So Indianapolis has been since 1911, and its crowd story will be written as of old on Decoration Day.

Tribute to—

tion, may have some enjoyment in life.

"I like to think of the managing officer as the mayor of this community, who has an interest in those who are about him. As in our city politics, we are very apt to find the average politician a person who is very considerable of his fellow men.

"In the Dixon state hospital, the managing officer, Dr. Murray can speak to every patient by their first names, either male or female. He converses with them, listens to their complaints and troubles, studies their personal problems, sympathizes and comforts them. It is the same frame of mind that the department is attempting to procure in every one of the Illinois institutions, including the penitentiaries. To me, it is a source of great satisfaction, in being able to state that great advancement has been made in this state in this regard.

State's Responsibility

"The state of Illinois can spend a lot of money in the construction of new buildings, in beautifying grounds and in feeding and housing the inmates of these communities, but our obligation extends even farther than that, in bringing rays of sunshine and happiness into the lives of the residents."

Director Bowen then outlined briefly the growth of the Dixon state hospital from its inception. The growth of the hospital he stated was much the same as all others of the state, "until the capacity has been taxed, with scarcely a county in the state which has not patients waiting to be admitted in this or some other."

He outlined the expenditure of approximately $20,000,000 in state and Federal funds in improving facilities at the hospitals during the past two years, adding that the program was about completed. About 10,000 beds have been added to Illinois institutions, a large portion of which are being used to thin out crowded conditions, he added.

"In the Dixon state hospital, the wards were inhumanely crowded, as was the condition in most of the other institutions. We have been able to make more decent accommodations, and now have a decent bed with plenty of fresh air and floor space for each patient and with a few beds to spare. This will last through the present biennium, then I expect that we will then be again confronted by another program of expansion in our institutions.

Plan Rehabilitation

"In the next period, we hope to be able to complete the task of rehabilitation. Many of the old buildings in the older institutions are veritable fire traps. They are three and four stories high and are not fire proof, while here we have none of this type of construction. These buildings which have been dedicated today are fireproof in every way, they are not three and four story frame fire traps. This new type of building, developed in Illinois, affords abundant light and ventilation is easily maintained. Furthermore, each of these buildings open out on Mother Earth, permitting the patients to enjoy that greatest of pleasures—to put their feet in the sod and feel it give."

"This gigantic program of improvement has been almost completed, and has been paid for out of current revenues. There is no bond issue covering a period of years to require the taxpayers of Illinois to open their purses and contribute each year toward their retirement, but the finances of Illinois under Governor Horner have been kept on a solvent basis, and the state has gotten a dollar's worth for every dollar expended.

"We have been able to complete this vast program economically. The type of buildings which have been erected on these grounds would have cost three times as much in some other states, which I will not mention. Illinois has spent approximately $1,200 per bed while in many other states the average is far greater. The general assembly has been very generous to the department of public welfare and has never questioned an appropriation for this department.

Grateful to Dixon

"We are deeply grateful to the citizens of Dixon and this community for the interest they have shown in this institution, and it is gratifying to know that the communities are displaying a more liberal attitude toward these institutions. It is representative of an advancement in humanitarianism. This institution is not a morbid curiosity which is closed from public view, but it is a humanitarian institution which deserves your interest and concern in observing the progress being made from day to day. It is a great satisfaction to us to know that at Springfield, Governor Horner and his administration have a humane and heart-felt interest in these unfortunate and who are interested in the social and economic problems of these institutions.

"In the not so far distant past, these institutions were regarded as places of mystery to which the public has felt that they were not welcome, but their minds have changed materially upon this subject.

The people of Illinois have given generously in subscribing funds to erect these institutions, and now they are welcome and entitled to visit and observe some of the problems which we have to deal of St. Paul, Minn. visited the L. S. Griffith home and with other friends Friday.

with, and to see the inmates, who are all very human."

Outlined Activities.

Director Bowen briefly enumerated some of the activities of his department, which demonstrated the number of citizens of Illinois coming under its jurisdiction. More than 53,000 are inmates in the institutions of Illinois; the department is entrusted with the distribution of old age assistance to some 125,000 aged men and women; it has the responsibility of more than 7,000 dependent children; over 13,000 men and women in the penal institutions present the most difficult task the department has to consider.

Mayor William V. Slothower was chairman of the meeting and was presented by Dr. Murray who at the outset of the program, expressed regret that several representatives and senators were unable to be present because of the session at Springfield. He expressed the appreciation of Governor Horner to the taxpayers of Illinois for their part in making institutions such as the Dixon state hospital possible, and in providing the new buildings which provide better care and more proper classification of patients, and in their efforts to give better care to these unfortunate citizens of Illinois.

Told of Hopes.

"It has long been my dream that the Dixon state hospital might be recognized as a model institution," Dr. Murray, in commenting upon the completion of the extensive building program, took occasion to express his thanks to members of his staff and the employees of the institution for their untiring efforts in making possible the fine dedication program and celebration.

Mayor Slothower paid high tribute to Dr. Murray and his staff in his opening remarks, and said:

"The state of Illinois is ever mindful of the obligation to the unfortunate human beings of our state, in an effort to effect a cure and return them to society or to care for them to benefit society. Dr. Murray has been at this institution for 20 years, the first two of which he served as assistant, and the remaining 18 years as managing officer. This event is a high compliment to his ability as a managing officer and the citizens of this community are grateful to the officials at Springfield for making possible his appointment."

GOOD THOUGHTS

We yet have known no better than to seek peace in the enjoyment of comfort, and joy in the possession of things. And now that these things are threatened or taken away from us, our hearts know no peace and our lives are strangers to joy. Infinitely more precious than the things we have lost are the things that remain—truth, goodness, beauty, faith, hope, love, the assurance of God's will and blessing in life's hard struggle.

—Rev. Richard H. Bennett.

Financial bankruptcy, grievous in its effects, may be disaster for the present. Cultural, moral, or spiritual bankruptcy may spell ruin for the future. We have in recent years placed undue emphasis on the fleeting, transitory, external values of life. The time has come to place the proper emphasis on permanent and inner values, our enduring goods.

—Justice Bernard Shientag.

The future of our country is not to be determined by the material resources but by the spiritual life of our people.

—Calvin Coolidge.

For several years a broken and distracted world has been waiting on its governments. It is now time to wait on God.

—Bishop W. N. Ainsworth.

Right where we are today there is a remedy, a sure and certain way of finding a right measure of abundance and success. This is the way which Christ Jesus showed to the world nineteen centuries ago when He said (Matthew 6:33), "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

—The Christian Science Monitor.

JUVENILE COURTS HIT
BY FORMER JUDGE

San Bernardino, Calif.—(AP)—Jesse Olney, former judge of the superior court, is in favor of doing away with juvenile courts.

"It is fast developing into a complete system of fascism," he writes in the California State Bar Journal. "Our youth are jailed, bailed, granted or denied rights on the mere order of probation officers, county attorneys, sheriffs and other executive officers."

On the other side, it "presents the great loophole to young criminals in their escape from punishment," he writes. "We turn them over to the juvenile court, which turns him again loose on the community on probation."

"Three Times Austria," the political autobiography which Austria's ex-chancellor, Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg, wrote before the Nazis deposed him, is scheduled to be published shortly in an English version.
